On February 23, 2011, Mr. Jones was arrested by the Pulaski County Sheriff's Office for possession of a controlled substance with intent, possession of drug paraphernalia, and no seat belt. According to the arrest report, on February 23, 2011, Mr. Jones was pulled over for no seat belt. Upon contact with Mr. Jones, officers smelled an odor of marijuana from inside the vehicle. Mr. Jones was asked to step out of his vehicle. He became agitated and began asking the officer why he had to exit the vehicle. When Mr. Jones exited the vehicle, the officer observed him reach up under the seat. The officers asked Mr. Jones to put his hands on the vehicle, so they could check him for weapons due to bulges in his pockets. The officer advised Mr. Jones there was a strong odor of marijuana on his person. Consequently, during the pat down, the officer felt a plastic package containing a green, leafy substance in the right, front pocket of Mr. Jones' jeans. Mr. Jones started trying to turn around and would not follow commands to keep his hands on the vehicle, so he was placed in handcuffs for the officers' safety.
